Re: MUR 6378

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I am in receipt of your letter of October 18, 2010 and wish to reference a communication I thought you had previously received from Mr. Steve Christy. In that response, Mr. Christy, who is the chairman of the committee, advised that the billboard advertisement in question was not paid for, authorized or produced by the Conservatives for Congress Committee.

Any such advertisements were placed by Mr. Dwight Jones or Jones Outdoor Advertising on his/their own volition, and had nothing to do with the committee. Mr. Jones was simply exercising his free speech rights and was not sponsored by anyone to our knowledge. We are unable to prove a negative, as we cannot prove we did not place the advertisement.

However, a contact to the billboard company should produce an invoice or some other tangible proof of who placed the advertisement. Again, I reiterate, it had nothing to do with the committee of which I am now treasurer, taking over from Mr. Sean McCaffrey. I suggest you direct your enquires to either one or both of the Jones, and close this complaint against the committee. Thank you for your time in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey J. Hill
